A Message from the Grand Knight

Now that the Lenten season has past and we again experienced the joy of Easter, let us try to keep that spirit going as we move into the beauty of spring. This is a great time to double our efforts at growing our membership. During the past two years we have lost a number of long time members with very few new members joining the ranks. Although we know you all have many commitments, please take some time to attend a Fraternal Night dinner, one of the events at the Council Hall or just stop by for a quick visit. The Council is only as vibrant as the members allow it to be, in other words, we need your help in sponsoring, supporting and/or volunteering to work on events and programs.

I have had a number of requests and suggestions for having various types of dinners, dances, cocktail parties, whiskey tasting events and other functions but very little interest in actually taking the helm and coordinating an event. It is only through your efforts can these things happen and likewise, our Council and the organization continue to grow and be a vibrant part of our members lives. Please consider lending your talents to keeping 676 the "flagship" of the Knights of Columbus in Washington.

Please see page 3 for a list of our sick members, friends and family. Especially keep Matt Ulrich and Jainie Philbrick in your prayers.

Fraternally yours,

Joe Kessler

Cree Erwin walked into the Kalamazoo Planned Parenthood a healthy woman, and after a first trimester abortion walked out so severely damaged she died three days later. Planned Parenthood has yet to take responsibility for Cree’s death and the Kalamazoo medical examiners office has listed the death due to complications from intra-uterine pregnancy, but has definitely covered up the real reason about a botched Planned Parenthood abortion. The good news is that at a press conference Planned Parenthood was connected to Cree Erwin’s death, and the exposure will definitely have an effect on PP. We have seen the medical aid and fire department all too often at the backdoor of Planned Parenthood. When will the terror and devastation end! Only when the church wakes up will abortion end and the silence is still deafening.
