Brother Knights,

Lent is a quiet reflective time for our membership. Our next activity is slated for Holy Thursday at Calvary cemetery. Please put it on your calendar if you can attend. Soon it will be Easter, and then we will be planning for our July 4th event at the Ryther Center.

Most have paid their dues for this year, but there are still about ten Knights in a delinquent status. Please make Winslow's job easier by sending in your dues now. We are also looking to increase our Assembly membership. The next exemplification locally will be in June. We would love to have a number of new members participate.

The next newsletter is likely to arrive right after Easter. On behalf of all of our officers, have a Blessed Easter.

In Christ,

Don Luby
Faithful Navigator
