This photo was taken at our annual 4th of July picnic at the Ryther Child Center. Also in attendance were Paul Pioli, Jerry Jandaka, Phil Philbrick, Dan Donohue, Mike Donohue plus several of the spouses were also in attendance to help serve the children.

Please be advised that there will be no formal meetings during the month of August, BUT many of the officers have decided to gather for dinner at the 125th Street Grill on August 6th; which is the first Thursday of the month. This was roundly approved at the last meeting in July. Wives and significant others are welcome to join us. We hope to see as many as are able to attend.

We will get back to our regular scheduled meeting times in September.

Please note the updates to the officer listing above. We do have a sentential position available if someone is willing to step forward.

It is with sadness that I inform you that our member Brother Knight James Wells has passed away. He went to his Lord on July 20th. Please join me in sending prayers to James' family and friends.

Respectfully,
Tom Joyce PFN
