Worthy Brother Knights,

Our business meeting was held Thursday, June 16th. We held election of officers that re-upped a number of our members and traded assignments for a few others. I'm constantly amazed at the willingness of the few to step up and take on these important rolls. We are still looking for a Chaplain and have a couple of inquiries in the works.

One of our important annual functions is putting on the 4th of July picnic at the Ryther Center in North Seattle. We have a nice group of volunteers, but we would love to add to our numbers. The residents seem to always enjoy our company, and especially the food we provide. Consider dropping by to say hello and maybe assist in dishing out some food to the kids who live there. The Ryther Center is a block East of Lake City Way on NE 95th Street.

We will have an officers meeting on Thursday July 7th at 125th Street Bar and Grill. Then we will take a recess until September. Have a great summer!

Yours in Christ,

Don Luby
Faithful Navigator
