Brother Knights:

We are now in the record books for the wettest winter in Northwest history. Pray that it clears up for Holy Thursday when our assembly gathers at Calvary cemetery for our annual celebration with the Archbishop. If possible, please put this event on your calendars for Holy Week as we remember the priests who have died this past year.

We look forward to seeing any of you who can make our officers' meeting on the first Thursday of March (March 3rd) at the 125th Street Grill at 6:00 PM. The March business meeting is being cancelled. It would have coincided with a rental event, March 17th. The K of C Hall is the site of the Friends of St Patrick annual black tie dinner and auction: proceeds benefitting Seattle University and one of the Catholic elementary schools in the Seattle area. All interested Knights and ladies are invited.

During this Lenten season, remember our ailing brother Knights. Pray for our country as we venture into this fascinating election cycle. Even our Pope is making news about our Christian values and how we should consider some of the pressing issues of the day. Pray that we consider Mercy as the virtue to contemplate this month and year.

Donald W Luby
Faithful Navigator
