Worthy Brother Knights,

Our officers of the James Shield Assembly met for our monthly business meeting 21 April 2016. We reported on the successful presentation at Calvary Cemetery on Holy Thursday: bragging that we, for once, outnumbered the Knights of St. Peter Claver. Our next significant event will be the July 4th picnic we organize for the Ryther Center. Preparations are well underway. We always enjoy additional Sir Knights attending to help with dishing out the food or assisting in the presentation of colors.

Our honor Guard has been very busy these past few months. Recent funerals for Gene Posel, PGK, and Leo Costello are but two of a number of requests for their presence. We are constantly in need of additional Honor Guard members and would appreciate any of you willing to take on another "occasional" project.

We had reports from the Board of Control telling us about some upgrades the building will be going through. We were also told about a project the Council is supporting to help procure an ultra sound machine for a new non-profit Women's Healthcare Clinic in the University District. Members present voted to contribute $1,000 towards the project. Once the Knights have raised $17,000 (half of the cost), Supreme will contribute the balance. Any members of the Assembly that would like to make individual donations are encouraged to send checks (made out to: KofC 676) to Larry Kessler GK, at the Knights of Columbus offices.

Regular meeting at 125th Street Grill on the first Thursday (May 5th). Please join us.

Yours in Christ,

Don Luby
Faithful Navigator
