Officers' Meeting First Thursday 6 PM Dinner Meeting 125th Street Grill

Sir Knights:

I pray you all enjoyed a glorious and blessed Christmas, and a raucous New Year.

I'm reminded during these cold winter months that there are refugees all over the globe who are suffering horrific hardships because of conflicts or other natural causes. We don't always know what to do, but we can always pray. And we can always make some small donations to the K of C Foundation or to organizations like CCS. There are countless people on our own streets who need that helping hand this specific winter. Be mindful.

There will be several 4th Degree initiations in early 2017. Ask your brother knights to become a part of what we do.

We will be holding our first officers' meeting on the 1st Thursday of January at the 125th Street Grill (6:00 PM). We would love to see any of you there.

Dues statements will be out shortly. Mail your checks to Winslow early so he can get that task off of his plate.

Please keep your fellow knights in your prayers. Several brothers are in poor health and making that transition to a better place. Travel with them in prayer and spirit.

We look forward to a dynamic and fruitful 2017!

Don Luby FN
