Brother Knights,

Our officers' meeting was well attended in December and we decided to not hold a business meeting since it was too close to Christmas. We will be back to our normal routine in January. Several of us are in the process of filling out paper work so that we can volunteer at the VA. If any one wishes to join us, contact Don Luby or Tom Joyce.

We had a nice turnout for the GK Christmas party. The State Deputy attended and presented two years' worth of distributions from The Pennies for Heaven fund to the Bishops of Seattle ($61,000).

As we struggle through the dark days of winter, remember those who are challenged with health issues: Dan Donohue and Matt Ulrich for two, and Arlene Boulanger.

In Christ,

Don Luby
Faithful Navigator

Happy
New Year!
